

The Haunting - Set It Off

Intro + Verse 1

"Come on in, boy," said the skeletons
Sitting by her closet door
Dirty secrets, empty memories,
And broken hearts across the floor

I was knocked out, heels over head
So you dragged me by my feet
To a ghost town, where you buried me
No wonder no one heard my screams

Love's so alive, but it died in its sleep
And now that it's dead, I live in your head
And I will haunt your crazy dreams

Chorus

No one will love you like I did, will treat you like I did
So go on, wear that scarlet letter
No one will love you like I did, will touch you like I did
So good luck finding something better

Verse 2

Run away, boy, if you couldn't tell, baby's got a thirst for blood
A subtle system, wicked melodies, craving bullets from her gun
So entranced they, follow every word, little spirals in their eyes
Catch a lover, turn an enemy just to watch them burn alive

Chorus (same as above)

Bridge

Someday you may find that picture perfect guy
And I'll chase my words with poison
Until that day arrives, and swine take to the sky,
Fill your void with open thighs so,
